CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 1st August 2006

PC :

1. The Chamber Summons is taken out in a suit which is a summary suit and there is an unconditional leave granted to the defendants to defend the suit by the order passed by this Court in Appeal No.1180 of 1984. Therefore, the party who has filed the Chamber Summons, should remove the office objections within two weeks from today and place the Chamber summons on record of the suit in which it is taken out, failing which the Chamber Summons shall stand dismissed without any further reference to this Court.
